Senior Embedded Software Engineer

General

As a member of the Software Team you are part of the GreenPeak core technology development team. You define the software architecture of future products.

You implement, test, upgrade and maintain the software components on embedded platforms.

Responsibilities include evaluating software requirements, architectural planning, detailed design, coding, unit testing, executing successful software system integration, ongoing product sustenance and quality control. You follow a formal software development process towards the successful completion of the project.

You are responsible for an efficient and optimized development environment.

Your profile

- ▶ You have a strong theoretical background and at least +7 years of experience in development of high performance embedded software and communications systems
- ▶ You have solid, hands-on experience in embedded C programming
- ▶ Experience with different microcontroller platforms is an asset
- ▶ You are creative and efficient in debugging and testing embedded systems
- ▶ You preferably have an in-depth knowledge of state-of-the-art wireless protocols such as IEEE 802.15.4 and ZigBee
- ▶ You have an open personality and you do not fear direct contact with customers
- ▶ Willing to (occasionally) travel worldwide
- ▶ You have an excellent knowledge of English

Our offering

- ▶ Innovative no-nonsense company and great team of enthusiastic co-workers
- ▶ Challenging job in growing high-tech company: you really make the difference
- ▶ Dynamic working environment: new ideas are born and implemented as fast as you can manage
- ▶ A highly visible internationally oriented position
- ▶ A competitive salary package, in line with your expertise, including a company car

At GreenPeak, people make the real difference!

If you would like to join our dynamic team and if you are convinced you will be a real asset to GreenPeak, we would be delighted to receive your CV.
